NOTES IN SEASON.

JOHN CHURCH & CO. have just ready "Palace of Song," a new music-book by Dr. Geo. F. Root, for conventions, singing-schools, and choirs.

HENRY HOLT & CO. will presently publish in book form Mr. Whitelaw Reid's recent address on "Some Aspects of Journalism," certainly one of the most suggestive and valuable contributions that has been made to this subject.

A. D. F. RANDOLPH & CO. will issue at once the memoirs of "Count Agenor de Gasparin," by the Pastor Borel, which they have had translated from the French, and which will be issued in England in their translation. It is said to be a charming sketch of a Christian hero.

WILLIAM BLAIKIE'S excellent little book, "How to Get Strong, and How to Stay So," has reached its fourth edition at Harper & Bros.' The first edition was exhausted in ten days, the second in four more, and there was so brisk a demand for the third that a fourth was ordered close upon it.

"DEAR OLD STORIES, TOLD ONCE MORE," by Faith Latimer, published by the American Tract Society about a year ago, has been very successful, the first edition of 5000 being entirely exhausted. The second edition of the same, now in the bindery, is an improvement on the first, having some colored illustrations added.

LINDSAY & BLAKISTON will have ready shortly a new Health Primer, by Dr. J. C. Wilson, on the timely subject "Summer and its Diseases," and an "Introduction to the Practice of Commercial Organic Analysis," by Alfred H. Allen. They have also nearly ready new editions of Dr. L. Turnbull's "Advantages and Accidents of Artificial Anæsthesia," and Bucknill and Tuke's "Manual of Psychological Medicine," etc.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS have now ready "The Life and Letters of Madame Bonaparte," edited by Mr. Eugene L. Didier, of Baltimore. This book, portraying the haughty and indomitable character of this remarkable woman, is an important contribution to biography, aside from its present interest. Stuart's threefold portrait of Mme. Bonaparte forms a frontispiece to the volume, which the publishers present in a novel binding of light brown cloth, stamped in red and mauve.

MACMILLAN & CO. expect at once "The Life of Charles James Matthews," the celebrated actor who was almost as well known in New York as in London, and was in fact at home on any stage in the world. The story is chiefly autobiographical, brimming over with the esprit of the great comedian, but Mr. Charles Dickens, who has edited it, has filled it out with selections from Matthews' correspondence and speeches, making it a better representation of the man. It will be one of the most enjoyable books of the year.

D. APPLETON & CO., by arrangement with Macmillan & Co., will be the American publishers of the little series on Classical Writers, which will probably make 50-cent volumes. "Milton," by Rev. Stopford A. Brooke, is the initial volume, and is nearly ready. A manual of "Early English Literature," by Brother Azarias, of Maryland; "Young Maugars," by André Theuriet, in the Collection of Foreign Authors; and "Money," a French story, in the New Handy-Volume series, will also be published forthwith.

SCRIBNER & WELFORD have ready two more volumes of the excellent Illustrated Biographies of Great Artists, which they issue on this side—"Raphael," by N. D'Anvers, a well-known art writer, and "Van Dyck and Hals," by Percy R. Head, of Oxford. These books are based on the very latest German and other authorities, and the copious illustration makes them peculiarly valuable, while their price is exceptionally low. A new South Kensington Hand-book is also just in, "Spanish Arts," treated by Signor Juan F. Riaño, who presents a succinct history, fully illustrated, of Spanish art manufactures.

R. WORTHINGTON has just ready the second edition of the "Souvenirs of Mme. LeBrun," a book which has earned its success in spite of the dull season. Mr. Worthington is heartily to be complimented on the typography and general appearance of this exceedingly tasteful book, which, though at a low price, is one of the most creditable recent issues of American book-makers. Mr. Worthington will send out next week "A Scotchman's Views of America—White and Black," in which Sir George Campbell gives his experiences, observations, and opinions resulting from a wide tour in this country, particularly in the South. This also will make a handsome volume. A series of popular novels, bound together in cloth volumes, will also presently be issued.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

In this list, the titles in brevier are direct transcriptions from books actually received, according to the rules of the American Library Association; those in nonpareil are from the best information available, and will be repeated in brevier when the book is received for registry.

The notes followed by a number are those which are sent out on printed title-slips, as revised by the Library Association authorities; unless bracketed, which means that they have not yet been so revised. Those not followed by a number are on the sole authority of the WEEKLY, and are not included in the title-slip registry.

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: Daniel; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); Q. (4to: under 30 cm.); O. (8vo: 25 cm.); D. (12mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); Tt. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Fe. (48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., nar., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights. Where figure instead of letter symbols are used, the record is from publisher's designation, and not measurement.

Imported books are marked with an asterisk; authors' and subscription books, or books published at net prices, with two asterisks; educational books published at "wholesale" prices, with a dagger.

The name of dealer is followed by initials of partners; lines of business in order of importance (with specialties in books and stationery bracketed, also in order of importance); date of establishment of present style of dealer, name of dealer succeeded, and date of original establishment of the house.

First column indexes wholesale book-dealers: P[ublisher, general], e[ducational], l[aw], m[edical], s[ubscription]; ☞ [specialty]; j[obber]; i[mporter].

Second column indexes retail book-dealers: g[eneral], e[ducational], s[pecial lines], f[oreign books], 2[second-hand], c[atholic], etc.

Third column indexes stationers: m[anufacturing], i[mporting] r[etail].

The entries in 2d and 3d cols. are graded: caps (as R) designating stock (books or stationery respectively, not both together) of over $5000; heavy letters (r), over $1000; italics (r), over $500; plain letter (r), not specified. The specification is from the parties themselves.

Fourth column indexes those in kindred business: n[ews], m[usic], w[all paper], f[ancy goods], etc.

When any dealers are confined to exceptional lines, an index hand (☞) refers to the body of the text for information.

When any abbreviation is given in parenthesis, it shows that the business so designated is but incidental to the other businesses entered in the text.

The Publishers' Weekly.

R. R. BOWKER, General Editor.

JULY 12, 1879.

PUBLISHERS are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, to insure correctness in the final entry.

The trade are invited to send "Communications" to the editor on any topic of interest to the trade, and as to which an interchange of opinion is desirable. Also, matter for "Notes and Queries." Notes from librarians will also be gratefully received.

In case of business changes, notification or card should be immediately sent to this office for entry under "Business Notes." New catalogues issued will also be mentioned when forwarded.

"Every man is a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help thereunto."—LORD BACON.

THE TRADE DIRECTORY.

WE present in this issue the first instalment of the long-promised "Book and Stationery Trade Directory," which we had intended to undertake, and had announced several years ago, but which has necessarily been deferred to the present time. The Directory will be made a feature of the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY from issue to issue, and will finally be published in volume form by Mr. Leypoldt, as a part of his general plan of trade helps.

We have taken great pains to obtain or verify all the information here given by direct application (1) to the parties themselves, (2) to leading dealers well acquainted with the trade of their vicinity. Every precaution has been taken that no place where any kind of a bookstore was located should elude our search, and it is believed that the list is as nearly complete and as accurate and authoritative as such a list can be made. That it will be found perfect we are by no means ready to claim.

The chief practical difficulty of this directory is one peculiar to the trades with which it has to deal. Many shops of various sorts keep a small stock of books, and even a larger number keep more or less of stationery. While 5000 would be an extreme estimate of the number of concerns engaged chiefly in the book and stationery trades, the list could be run up far above 20,000 by including the petty stationery stocks of "general stores" and the like. It has been absolutely impossible to draw a clear line of demarcation: we have sought to include all those who deal distinctively in books or stationery, whether associated with other lines of business or not, and who are therefore worth approaching in these lines. We suppose the total on this plan will exceed 10,000 names.

One principle of selection we have taken pains to present—it is difficult to say with what success. We have asked from each party entered, their own estimate as to the amount of goods in stock,—as over $5000, $1000, $500. These have been designated by different fonts of type in the index columns, so that select lists can be checked off by regarding these distinctions. Where no specification is made, the concern in question either does not carry $500 worth of stock or has not reported at all. We trust any in the latter case will send us their estimate, that they may not be classed below their proper standing. It will be observed that we do not propose to give commercial ratings at all—only the amount of these particular stocks, so as to show relative importance in these trades.

The other information given in the Directory, whether as to towns or as to dealers, is both more complete and more compactly given than is usually attempted. The system of designating general classes by the device of the index columns will be found practically useful, and alike to the dealer and to the traveller we trust the work will prove of decided value.

The preliminary publication of the material in the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY should not only prove an interesting and valuable feature, but will, we trust, be taken advantage of by the trade to make the Directory proper more accurate than would otherwise be possible. As the pages must be put in plates soon after issue in the WEEKLY, additions and corrections are requested promptly. We particularly urge our friends generally, especially jobbers of local acquaintance, to take pains to read over the lists carefully, as fast as printed, and inform us at once of any omissions, either of places or of concerns, and of errors of any kind. We shall give later the particulars as to the publication of the Directory in volume form.

THE issue of our EDUCATIONAL NUMBER is necessarily deferred until next week, when we hope to issue it promptly on its date of July 19th. We are of the belief that the catalogue, with its new plan, will meet the wants of the trade more fully and satisfactorily than any hitherto published; and our orders for it are already far ahead of last year's at this date. We should be greatly obliged to dealers intending to order editions if they would kindly do so at once, before we go to press with the imprint editions

—a convenience to us and assuring earlier delivery to them. Publishers who have not yet forwarded their advertising favors are requested to send copy at once. The circulation of imprint editions will be unusually large this year, and our regular edition, for which advertisements are accepted at the lower rate, will be also larger than common.

THE INTERNATIONAL LITERARY CONGRESS.

We gave in our issue of June 28th an abstract of the proceedings of all except the last sessions of the "Literary Congress" at London. The reports after the dates of those advices disappear from the London papers, which evidently failed to be impressed with the importance of the Congress. The only action of any moment seems to have been the resolution translated in our previous issue, and a proposal to form an international bureau or agency as a "medium between publishers, translators, and authors"—an often proposed speculation which seems to have got no farther along than usual. No practical action in international copyright was taken, and the report of the British Royal Commission was not even discussed.

It was decided to hold the next "Congress" at Lisbon, simultaneously with the tercentenary of Camoens.

It is stated in the English papers that the Belgian Literary Union has resolved to organize an International Literary Congress, to be held in Brussels next year, which it is to be hoped may be of more importance.

Mr. Edward King, in another roseate letter to the Evening Post, mentions the election of members of the Honorary and Executive Committees. Prof. Longfellow and Mr. Emerson were designated on the former, probably without any shadow of authority, and six Americans were placed on the latter, including Col. Higginson, who we have reason to believe had not authorized the use of his name, Mr. King, M. D. Conway, and Bronson Howard. England is represented on this working committee by no really representative men, and altogether the affair seems to have proved, except so far as mutual admiration goes, an entire fizzle. The only suggestion to the contrary is a gushing letter from M. About to the London Times, in which he speaks of the "unlooked-for results" of the Congress, which no one else seems to have discovered.

THE LIBRARY CONFERENCE AT BOSTON.

The American Library Association held its third Conference at Boston, Monday to Thursday of last week, June 30th–July 3d. As our last issue went to press on Thursday, notice was necessarily deferred to this week. The Conference was an entire and decided success, although none of the hoped-for English representatives were present and although the programme, crowded with written papers and with hospitalities, did not admit of the verbal discussion hitherto found so valuable. Prof. Justin Winsor, Librarian of Harvard University, presided, with Mr. Dewey at the Secretary's desk, and there was a goodly attendance of librarians. Among those connected with the book trade present at the sessions or social gatherings were Mr. F. W. Christern, Mr. H. O. Houghton, Mr. Soule, of Little, Brown & Co.; Mr. John R. Bartlett, formerly of Bartlett & Welford, and now of Providence; Mr. J. S. Lockwood, Mr. C. A. Nelson, Mr. Horace E. Scudder, and Rev. Edw. Abbott, of the Literary World.

The regular sessions of the Association were held in the fine hall of the Medical Library Association, Boylston Place, on Monday and Wednesday. Among the papers, those of possible interest to the book-trade were on "Indexing," by Mr. Fletcher, of Hartford; "Binding," by Mr. Hathaway, foreman of the Boston Public Library bindery; "Book-thieving and Mutilation," by W. B. Clarke, the Boston bookseller; and on insect destroyers of books, by Prof. Hagen, the distinguished entomologist. Mr. Hathaway gave a critical estimate of the value of different binding materials, with regard to texture and color, strongly commending the new buckram. Mr. Clarke proposed, to prevent the marketing of stolen books, that at a special page to be designated by the Library Association the library stamp should always appear, so that dealers offered books might at once turn to that page. Prof. Hagen stated that except in the case of spasmodic incursions of insects, unused books only were in much danger from insects, and suggested yearly handling of all books; but Mr. Weston Flint, of the Patent Office Library, showed new cloth books, just put on the shelves, whose covers had been badly discolored by insects.

The brief reports of outstanding committees were accepted without discussion; Mr. Poole reported progress on his Index, and that it would be published—he declined to estimate a date—by Houghton, Osgood & Co. The only new committee appointed was on a general Index to Subject-headings, consisting of Messrs. Cutter, Perkins, Fletcher, Noyes, and Bowker. A strong resolution was passed, on Mr. Poole's motion, in favor of a new building for the National Library of Congress, and an invitation from Mr. Spofford to meet next year in Washington will undoubtedly be accepted by the Executive Board. The papers and proceedings above mentioned will appear in full in the July issue of the Library Journal.

Tuesday was devoted to a "symposium" on fiction in libraries and the development of children's reading. A fine audience filled the large hall of the Young Men's Christian Union, and listened appreciatively to papers or addresses from Mr. W. E. Foster, of Providence; Mrs. Kate Gannett Wells, C. F. Adams, Jr., E. E. Hale, who read a report by Miss M. H. Brooks on the work of the Unitarian Ladies' Commission for reading Sunday-school books; Miss Mary A. Bean, of Brookline; Robert C. Metcalf, of Wells School, Boston; Mr. S. S. Green, of Worcester; Jas. Freeman Clarke, Col T. W. Higginson, Prof. W. P. Atkinson, and Judge Chamberlain. This portion will be given in full in the Library Journal for August.

Delightful receptions were tendered by Mr. Geo. B. Chase; the city of Boston—an excursion down the harbor; the Museum of Fine Arts, and Harvard College, and a day at Plymouth concluded a most enjoyable and successful meeting.

THE SWINDLER DODGE.

THE swindler Henry J. Dodge, who defrauded Robert Carter & Bros. and A. D. F. Randolph & Co. by means of fictitious checks, pleaded guilty to forgery in the Court of General Sessions, and was sentenced by Judge Gildersleeve to two years in the State Prison. The indictment on which he pleaded was that charging him with forging the name of Andrew F. Stewart to a check for $87, on the Faneuil Hall National Bank of Boston, passed on Robert Carter & Bros. He had written from the Tombs claiming that he was a novice in crime, and was driven to these forgeries by extreme destitution, his wife having about that time given birth to triplets. This is probably untrue, as a woman purporting to be Dodge's wife told the triplet story at the time of his arrest with such variations as to prove one story or the other false. Mr. Judd, of New Haven, had also been swindled by the man, and had a requisition from the Governor of Connecticut, in case he should not be convicted here.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. E. SIMMONS, of the American Tract Society, is summering for a few weeks in the far West. In the Yosemite he did some tall climbing, for he writes to a friend in the city: "Last Monday had a *horse*back ride" (he evidently meant a mule, but is modest !), "going up a trail that part of the way bent back a little."

MR. J. C. NIMMO sailed by the Germanic on Saturday, having made successful arrangements with leading houses in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia for the establishment of the depot for American books in London in connection with the new establishment of J. C. Nimmo & Bain.

MR. GEORGE ROUTLEDGE, the well-known English publisher, is to stand for Parliament at the next general election.

WM. B. ROPES, for many years head clerk with H. A. Young & Co., is now with Estes & Lauriat.

STATIONERY NOTES.

MR. HENRY BAINBRIDGE has recently patented a tin tag, paper mounted, which he calls "Indestructible."

AND now the Pinafore fiend has laid its heavy hand upon a triangular lead pencil, No. 2, manufactured by the American Lead Pencil Co., and stamped the "Dick Deadeye marlin."

THE National Temperance Publishing Society have just issued a packet of twelve illuminated temperance cards, with Bible texts, suitable for distribution in Sunday-schools, juvenile organizations, and among children generally.

COMMENCING July 1, the Morgan Envelope Company and Plimpton Manufacturing Company will supply the Post-Office Department with official dead-letter and registered-package envelopes for one year. About 40,000,000 will be required.

THE New Era Paper Co., Boston, has just got out a new prepared or water-proofed paper which is free from oil or grease. The finest pieces of silk can be wrapped up in it without injury, and for all the purposes to which paper of this kind is applied it will be found satisfactory.

THE contracts for supplying the Department of Public Printing with first-class ledger and flat papers have been awarded to the Keith Paper Co. for the smaller sizes and lower-priced papers, and to Woolworth & Graham and L. L. Brown Paper Co. for the larger sizes and higher-priced papers. Dobler, Mudge & Chapman will furnish the second-class papers.

BUSINESS NOTES.

AMHERST, MASS.—The bookstore of Edwin Nelson was destroyed by fire July 4th.

BOSTON, MASS.—Mr. Carl Schoenhof has removed from his old quarters, 40 Winter Street, to 146 Tremont Street, where with increased facilities he will be able to do a larger business.

LOWELL, MASS.—Coggeshall & Son, books, stationery, etc., have dissolved partnership. F. P. Coggeshall continues.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Pleasanton & Martin, manufacturers of blank-books, have dissolved partnership.

PETERSBURG, VA.—The firm of W. B. Harrison & Co., books, etc., have dissolved partnership. W. L. Zimmer & Co. succeed.

RICHMOND, VA.—C. P. Walford & Co., books and stationery, have sold out to T. L. D. Walford.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS.—Frank H. Pierce, books and stationery, has sold out to Wm. Terry & Co.

ATHENS, TENN.—W. S. Turner, books, etc., has sold out to T. R. Russell.

WARRENSBURG, MO.—G. H. Christopher has bought the stationery business of Miss Mary J. Jewett.

RUSHVILLE, IND.—D. W. Smith, books, stationery, etc., has deceased.

RECENT CATALOGUES.

ROBERT CLARKE & CO. have issued another of their valuable trade helps in the shape of a Fine Arts Catalogue. The titles are arranged alphabetically in two lists, one embracing books of a general character, the other practical books. A full index of subjects is added.

BAKER, PRATT & CO. have just issued a handsome catalogue full of valuable information to dealers in school materials and stationers. It fills 184 pages, embracing a list of all the school merchandise manufactured by them and others, is fully illustrated, and has two fine colored plates. Price 25 cents.

THE Orange Judd Co. have recently published an illustrated catalogue of rural books, embracing standard works for farmers, stock-raisers, gardeners, housekeepers, florists, fruit-growers, architects, and artisans.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

"A MINISTRY of Health, and other Papers" is a volume by the distinguished London sanitarian, Dr. B. W. Richardson, in press by D. Appleton & Co.

THE portion of Herbert Spencer's magnum opus which relates to "The Data of Ethics" will be presently issued on this side by the Appletons, in a volume of something over 200 pages.

LIEUT. GREEN'S book on Russia and the Turkish war is deferred by D. Appleton & Co. until September. The numerous maps will be among the finest ever produced here or elsewhere.

THE Department of State has issued a circular of information as to the proposed International Exhibition at Sidney, Australia, which can be had on application by any publishers or others who desire to exhibit.

WM. R. JENKINS, 850 Sixth Avenue, of this city, makes his début as a publisher in issuing Dr. A. Liautard's "Vade Mecum of Equine Anatomy." Mr. Jenkins will make a specialty of veterinary publications, which with two colleges in this city are assuming importance.

HENRY JAMES' "Roderick Hudson," published by Houghton, Osgood & Co. several years ago, has been revised, retrenched, and in places rewritten for the English public to whom it now appears, practically as a fresh work, in a three-volume edition from the press of Macmillan & Co., London.

SOME time since "Le Crime de Jasper" was issued in Paris, purporting to be a translation of Dickens' "Edwin Drood," as completed by Wilkie Collins. Mr. Collins sued the real writer, one M. Darosne, who also published the book, and obtained judgment. Damages were withheld, but the court ordered the decision to be advertised at defendant's expense.

LORING, SHORT & HARMON have just ready Hopkins' Digest of Maine Reports, vols. 57 to 68 inclusive, in one octavo volume of over 600 pages. The work has been prepared by Geo. C. Hopkins, and will meet the demand of the profession for a digest of the late reports. Those having the volumes of Eastman and Virgin will need this volume to complete the series.

MESSRS. E. P. DUTTON & CO. have arranged for the sole agency for the United States and Canada of the juvenile list of Messrs. Griffith & Farran, London. This is a very valuable list and embraces the books of Kingston, Gilmore, Adams, and other English celebrities. Messrs. Dutton & Co. will also represent the theological publishing house of Joseph Masters & Son, London.

MR. GREENE'S "English Language: its Grammatical and Logical Principles," will be published next month by Houghton, Osgood & Co. In the preface Mr. Greene says: "It is confidently believed that this work, binding together as it does the syntax of all languages on the common basis of universal generic forms of expression, will be found to supply a deficiency which thoughtful educators have long felt in the study of language."

THE coming volume in the International Scientific Series is the important work on "The Human Species," by Prof. A. de Quatrefages, Prof. of Anthropology at the Museum of Natural History, Paris, a sturdy opponent of the Darwinian theories of origin, whose book will be for this reason the more likely to command attention. Another contribution to scientific polemics, Haeckel's reply to Prof. Virchow, under the title of "Freedom in Science and Teaching," is also nearly ready at D. Appleton & Co.'s, with an introduction by Prof. Huxley.

THE libel suit of Shepherd vs. Francis, in which R. Herne Shepherd sued the publisher of the Athenæum for libel, has been decided in London by a verdict of £150 for plaintiff. The plaintiff alleged malicious comment, beyond the bounds of fair criticism, in the use of such phrases as "booksellers' hack," "a combination of the chiffonier and resurrection-man," and "vampire," in connection with plaintiff's revival of forgotten books and early poems disregarded by leading poets in authorized editions of their works. Mr. Browning was one of the witnesses called for the defence, and he expressed his "entire and grateful approval" of the Athenæum's objections to resurrecting Mrs. Browning's early poems.

For 1879 (Seventh Year).

THE additional features (besides the publishers' own trade-lists) of the ANNUAL for this year will be :

1. The Annual Reference-List, 1878-79. This list, forming the third provisional Supplement to the American Catalogue, and embracing all the books recorded in The Publishers' Weekly from July 1, 1878, to June 30, 1879, with additional titles, corrections, changes of price and publisher, etc., is compiled on what is known as the "dictionary plan," by which any book can be found, whether it is looked for under author, or title, or subject.

2. The Educational Catalogue for 1879 (tenth year). This Catalogue, which is used by the entire trade and educational interest as the most reliable reference list of School-Books, will present two essential improvements, viz. : (1) arrangement on the "dictionary plan," combining a Finding-List for the trade and a Subject Catalogue for the use of schools ; (2) Trade-list or wholesale price, and mailing or retail price, in parallel columns.

[ENTIRELY NEW FEATURES.]

3. The Annual Class List, 1878-79. While in the regular Reference-List individual books are found under author, title, or subject, the Annual Class-List, on the plan of the monthly Class Synopsis in The Publishers' Weekly, gives references under such collective headings as Arts and Sciences, Biography, Education, Fiction, Juvenile, Law, Medicine, Poetry, Religion, Travel, etc., to all books of the year published in these departments.

4. The Order-List for 1879. This list, on the plan of the weekly Order-List of The Publishers' Weekly, presents, under the alphabetically-arranged names of the publishers, all the books (stating price) issued in 1879 by those publishing houses which are represented in the ANNUAL. The practical object of this list, which will be compiled and printed at the very last moment, is twofold : (1) To save booksellers time and labor in preparing their fall orders for the books of the season ; (2) To give publishers who supply their lists at an early date an opportunity for adding any books issued later and not mentioned in their own list.

The above Lists, all requiring unusual labor and expense, present in their combination so perfect a working tool as has never been presented to the trade of any other country. It may be justly claimed that these special trade helps alone will make the ANNUAL indispensable to every one who has any interest in the purchase and sale of books.

TERMS.

The price will be One Dollar per copy, bound in cloth. The price of the volume will be raised after close of subscription.

No single subscriptions (unless by special agreement) can be taken into account that have not been paid up, as the small amounts will neither bear the trouble nor the expense or risk of numerous accounts, bills, statements, and subsequent collections.

Delayed or unpaid subscriptions are not entitled to the subscription price ($1).

Remittances should be made by money-order on New York, or registered letter, as we cannot be responsible for any losses. Receipt for remittance will be sent by return mail.

Unless special shipping directions are received, copies ready for delivery will be dispatched by express.

For 1879 [Tenth Year].

COMPILED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

The Educational Catalogue has been found so valuable to the Trade, not only as a finding-list, but for circulation among educational customers, for the purpose of soliciting orders, and saving at the same time much troublesome correspondence, that its continuance is recognized as a necessity.

It is proposed to make the list this year on what is known as "the dictionary plan," entering each series or book in the general alphabet under the author's or editor's name, with cross-references from class and subject headings, so that the advantages of both a finding-list for the trade and a class catalogue for the use of schools are combined.

It is proposed to solve the question of prices by giving a line to each book, and entering both the trade-list and mailing or retail price, when made, in parallel columns. Where only a wholesale price is made, it is proposed to add a reasonable percentage (20 per cent) to meet the desire of retail dealers who circulate imprint editions from which the trade-list column will be dropped. In jobbers' imprint editions (not less than 500 copies) the two columns will be retained, but with publisher's prices only given.

The Educational Catalogue in its new shape, will, we believe, very thoroughly serve the purposes of those dealers who wish to keep as much of the educational trade as possible in their own hands, and work up more, by sending such a list out to schools and teachers. This Catalogue is acknowledged the most accurate and reliable in the market, and, especially in its new shape, will be found by far the most convenient and satisfactory.

In making up special orders for the Educational Catalogue, Booksellers should bear in mind that it possesses not only temporary value, but will serve its purpose during the whole year. As numerous orders for editions are received every summer, after the issue of the Educational Catalogue, we again call attention to the necessity of being in possession of orders at once.

CASH TERMS FOR EDITIONS:

With sole imprint of ordering firm, and stitched, per 100 copies, $5; per 1000 copies, $40.

There is no extra charge for printing name, business card, etc., on the imprint page; the last page is left blank at the disposal of the dealer, but any copy for that, advertising special lines or general business, will be set up and printed thereon for $5 the page, or $1 if plate is sent.

 Copy for imprint and shipping directions should accompany the order.
